SNODGRASS—We are authorized to announce C. E. Snodgrass, of Crossville, as a candidate for Judge of this the Fifth Judicial Circuit of Tennessee, subject to the action of the democratic party in primary election to be held December 1, 1917.

Mrs. W. H. Haile and sons, Max and Kenneth, of Cookeville, spent last Sunday very pleasantly with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Morgan, it being Mr. Morgan's 54th birthday. She was accompanied by Miss Leona Haile.

B. L. Quarles and P. L. Tardy attended the Y. M. C. A. meeting at Cookeville Sunday.

Mrs. Ofa Johnson has returned to her home in Cookeville, after a pleasant visit to relatives in Gainesboro and Stone.

Grover Haile, who has been in Oklahoma and Kansas for several months, spent several days at home last week. He returned to Cumberland University to finish his course in law.

Lewis Botts, John Petty, Walter Christian and Jim Sheehy left Tuesday for Camp Gordon. They were accompanied by the railroad station by John J. Gore.

Mr. and Mrs. T. J. Draper and son, J. M. Draper, have gone to Columbia, S. C. to visit their son, James, who is in training camp.

Dr. and Mrs. S. B. Fowler have gone to Ft. Riley, Kansas, on a visit to their daughter, Mrs. H. R. Richmond.

Mrs. Frank Gailbreath entertained last Thursday evening in honor of her sister, Miss Young and her cousin, Miss Settle, who will leave this week for Nashville to enter business college.

Dr. R. C. Gaw accompanied two of his patients to Nashville this week. Mrs. Clay Hawkins, who will undergo an operation, and Mrs. S. G. Gore for examination and treatment.

B. L. Quarles is confined to his room this week with la grippe.

Hon. Cordell Hull was in Gainesboro this week.

The soldier boys are sending in some interesting army news every week, which is enjoyed by the readers of the Sentinel very much. We would like to have a few items from E. L. Dudeney and H. R. Haile, and any of the boys who care to write. Keep the letters coming boys, they are interesting, and your friends over the county are anxious to hear from all the boys.

L. A. Ligon, of Carthage, candidate for circuit Judge, Judge C. E. Snodgrass, of Crossville, candidate for reelection, W. R. Officer, of Livingston, and Harry Camp, of Sparta, candidates for Chancellor, were in Gainesboro this week. They addressed a large number of the voters at the courthouse Monday afternoon. They were given only a short time to lay their claims before voters, and each candidate made their talks brief. These men are first class gentlemen in every respect and if elected will perform the duties of these offices without fear or favor.

Criminal court convened Monday with Judge J. M. Gardenhire on the bench. Attorney General W. R. Officer and his faithful assistant, J. R. Mitchell were at their post of duty. In his charge to the jury, Judge Gardenhire dwelt upon the "bone dry" law, and stated that this was one of the best laws ever placed upon the statute books, and that it had cut lawlessness down already to about 50 percent over his circuit. He also emphasized the fact, that the second offense of this "bone dry" law would mean a sentence to the state penitentiary. It will be advisable under this law, to have nothing to do with the so called "Joy Juice." The docket is light and court will adjourn Friday.

FOOD CAMPAIGN LAGS.

Up to last Monday night the county chairman had reported only 500 signatures. Most all of these were from Gainesboro, Whitleyville, Rough Point, Highland and Gladdico.

J. N. McCain, of Whitleyville, turned in 85, and is entitled to the honor, so far, of securing more signatures than any other district chairman. The women showed their loyalty by all, but 5, signing the pledge cards.

The good women of the county surely have not had an opportunity to respond to the call of the Food Administration by signing the pledge cards and becoming members of the association, or else they do not realize the important part this administration will play in this war. Our soldiers, who are now in the field and those who are yet to follow, as well as our allies, who are fighting for the liberties of the world must have food. It is going to be a herculean task to furnish all these with food and still have plenty for the civilian population, but if every woman will do her bit it will make the task much easier. When you sign the cards they go up to headquarters, and you are then enrolled as a member. The Food Administration will from time to time during the war mail to each member suggestions that if carried out will prevent a food famine the most horrible thing that could occur. You are not asked to eat less, but asked to save more, eat less of some foods and more of others, and each member is only required to follow suggestions in so far as her circumstances permits.

Won't the District chairmen get busy and won't the women loyally respond. Our quota for the county was first fixed at 2600, but on account of the fact, that all girls of the age of 16 years and older are eligible, our quota was raised to 3200. Everybody wake up, only one more week of the campaign.

BAGDAD.

Farmers are busy sowing wheat and gathering corn.

Orville Brooks, wife and little son, visited Mrs. J. C. Hackett Sunday.

Clarence Hollaud has returned from Richland, Ky., where he purchased a farm. He leaves for his new home soon.

W. W. Rogers and wife have moved to Bagdad. We welcome them to this community and wish them success.

Miss Ona Holland returned Friday from a visit with her brother, Frank Holland, at woodbury, Ky.

Miss Micca Draper is visiting J. M. Dean and wife.

Ethel Holland visited Mrs. Belle Hackett, Saturday.

Everybody seems to be sad as our boys continue to leave for training camp. We regret much to see them go. Our prayers are that they may be guided by our dear Lord, and soon return.

Hilman Trousdale, of Red Boiling Springs, who was in training camp at Greenville, S. C., died Saturday. His remains were brought home and buried Tuesday. J. M. Dean and daughter Mrs. Simmons, attended the funeral.

NEW HURRICANE.

L. B. Cason and wife visited at Mayfield.

Several from this place attended meeting at Locks Branch Sunday.

Misses Theo and Settie Cason entertained a number of young folks Saturday night.

Jack Dale and wife, of Celina, are visiting W. C. Terry.

John Speakman, of Cookeville, who has been building David Hall's chimney, has returned home.

Come on you camp Sevier and Jackson boys. Let's hear from you.

Spencer Walker is on the sick list this week.

Henry Hall had 75 bushels of soy beans threshed last week on an old fashioned "ground hog."

Misses Lassie and Myrtle Spivey visited Bessie Cherry.

School has opened at New Hurricane, after a two weeks vacation.

JAMESTOWN BAR ENDORSE OFFICER.

Whereas, our neighbor and brother lawyer, the Hon. W. R. Officer, of Livingston, Tennessee, is a candidate for Chancellor of this, the Fourth Chancery Division of the State of Tennessee, and recognizing in him a man of sterling ability and excellent character, both public and private, as an attorney and Attorney General for the 5th Judicial Circuit of the State of Tennessee for the last fifteen years, the administration of his official duties has been fair, forcible, earnest and unbiased; as such he has no peers and but few equals. We see in him a man in every way well equipped for the office he seeks, and take pleasure in recommending him to the voters of this Chancery Division, and as members of the Jamestown Bar pledge our unalterable support to him for his nomination and election to said office, the public welfare requiring such action.

October 25, 1917.

W. A. Garret,
James A. Allred,
L. T. Smith,
W. J. Smith,
J. S. Bowden,
J. W. Evans.

adv.

The Liberty Loan Executive Committee wishes to express to Mr. B. L. Quarles, Chairman Liberty Loan Committee for Jackson County, and to each member of Committees and individuals, working in the recent Liberty Loan Campaign its sincerest appreciation of their untiring efforts and co-operation.

Without such co-operation the Campaign could not have proved the success which it has.

Yours very truly,

Liberty Loan Executive Committee, Sixth Federal Reserve District.

W. C. Wardlaw, Chairman.

HAYDENBURG R. 2.

Lex Ray and family are visiting relatives at Gainesboro.

Zina Webb and family went visiting in their car Saturday.

Comer Huffines made a business trip to Gainesboro Saturday. Sam Casetty and family visited Mrs. Casetty's mother on Indian creek this week.

School at Haydenburg is still running, but how long it will survive is not known.

Lester Pay is getting deeper and deeper in the spoke business as the days pass by.

Marrying seems to have ceased since the draft law took effect. When did you hear of a wedding?

L. S. Smith has returned from Whitleyville, where he has been building up chimney for Dr. Quarles.

Seth Draper, wife and little son, of Haydenburg R 1, visited Charley Forkum and family Saturday.

Cicero West and wife made a trip to Gainesboro Saturday. Mrs. West had some dental work done.

Miss Ora Smith, who has been visiting her aunt, at Haydenburg for the past two weeks, has returned to her home in Free State.

The moves that the Tuetonic powers are making on the Italian front seems as though they are seeking a winter resort in the sunny land of Italy.

Slicker Snake was seen by the writer Saturday. Wonder if he is too wrapped up in the war news, and his "Bill Town affairs" that he couldn't give us something funny.

November, with her inspiring days has come; with skies as fair as those of Italy. How happy we should be of the fact, that the Lord in creating this great mass, the earth set the poles at an incline of 23 1/2 degrees in order that we should have fair November once a year.

The sad news comes to our ears today (Sunday) that Hilman Trousdale, a former Jackson county boy, is dead, having died in the hospital at the training camp. He was born and reared in Jackson county, but had been living in Macon county for the last few years. He was a very popular young man here, and loved by all. Our deepest sympathies are with his beloved father, mother and brother.

WOODROW.
